Horse Number and Name	Track	Race #	Suggested Bet type	Suggested Units	Why do we like it?
#7 Sun Setting	Caulfield	2	PLACE	1	3 rd up, nice run last start from an unsuitable barrier and also getting checked in the straight, once clear hit the line nicely running a quicker last 600m than winner who she faces again, up to 1200m looks ok and has run well at the trip before, 3kg claim again so stays down in the weights, draws a middle barrier and will get a soft run. Very consistent horse who should run on late here into the placings.
#5 Makdane	Caulfield	6	EACH WAY	1 (0.5 EW)	2 nd up, super return first up in same BM84 grade winning despite being 3 wide the trip, gets a 2kg claim here so carries a similar weight, up to 2000m is ok and has run well previously this track and distance beaten by a good horse in Zambardo, ultra consistent horse who appears to have come back well, its 800m sprint last start compares well with short priced favourite here. Consistent type that will run well in the soft conditions.
#7 Bred 'Em All	Caulfield	7	WIN	1	3 rd up, 2 solid wins so far this preparation in Adelaide and appears to be a progressive type hence coming to Melbourne, maps well from barrier 4 here, drops 2.5kgs from last win and up in class, sectionals very solid last start however appears to have more to offer and still learning. Clearly a progressive type who can go on with it.
#16 Bengal Diamond	Eagle Farm	1	EACH WAY	1 (0.5 EW)	3 rd up, super run from the widest barrier last start to only go down narrowly in the listed Silk Stocking, ran a quicker time overall than favourite Daggars on the same day, back to BM85 grade here, draws well this time and will get a far more economical run. Can use its barrier and be very competitive here.
#4 Lyles	Eagle Farm	2	WIN	1	1 st up, winner 1 st up last preparation over same trip, has trialled well for this on soft going, undefeated last preparation and progressed nicely, appears to have room to move in its rating with a BM85 looking suitable, 2 for 2 at the distance, beat Kings Secret in most recent start, draws nicely. Looks to be a progressive sprinter who can run strongly on the pace here.
#14 Splash Back	Eagle Farm	8	EACH WAY	1 (0.5 EW)	3 rd up, super win last start gathering them in easily in the G2 Victory Stakes, she finds same conditions here and up another 100m suits, draws to get a nice run, promising type who didn't quite live to expectations last preparation, appears to have come back better, slick sectionals between the 600-200m last start, any improvement here and will be hitting the line very hard. Talented horse that can run well here at odds.
